Feel it.

2022-2033 CONCERT SEASON

TAR RIVER ORCHESTRA & CHORUS

The Tar River Orchestra & Chorus was founded in 1986 and is dedicated to sustaining live local music. Come experience Tar River Live – live performances by professional level musicians. The organization includes five performance groups and draws musicians from Eastern North Carolina and beyond, including university professors, music educators, professional musicians, and local professionals with a passion for playing for live audiences.

2022-2023 TAR RIVER ORCHESTRA & CHORUS SEASON SCHEDULE

GOING HOME

Tar River Orchestra

Saturday, October 1, 7:30 PM

Dunn Center, Rocky Mount

The Tar River Orchestra kicks off the 2022-23 Concert Season with Antonín Dvorak's beloved Symphony No. 9, the "New World Symphony", featuring the nostalgic melody that would later become the song "Going Home". Also on the program will be our Young Artist concerto winner, flautist Anna Frazer; and an overture by one of Ukraine's most popular composers, Mykola Lysenko. Tickets for a pre-concert reception with hors d'oeuvres and drinks may be purchased for this concert.

LIGHT SHINES IN THE DARKNESS

Tar River Chorus

Saturday, November 12, 7:30 PM

First Baptist Church, Rocky Mount

Conductor Michael J. Glasgow returns to the podium to lead the Tar River Chorus in a powerful concert exploring the contrasting themes of "light" and "darkness." The concert's eponymous work, by Michael John Trotta, serves to anchor a program featuring contemporary compositions embracing a spectrum of riveting to sublime. Strings and keyboard provide a rich accompaniment.

STILL THERE IS CHRISTMAS

Tar River Children's Chorus
and Youth Strings

Saturday, December 3, 7:30 PM

First Baptist Church, Rocky Mount

After more than 2000 years, still there is Christmas. No other holiday is so filled with music all around the world. The songs warm our hearts, give us great joy, and declare hope in an unstable world. Join the Tar River Children's Chorus and Tar River Youth Strings in a festive Christmas concert full of beautifully arranged carols, sentimental songs, and fun favorites.

A SWINGIN' CHRISTMAS

Tar River Swing Band

Tuesday, December 13, 7:30 PM

Dunn Center, Rocky Mount

Join the Tar River Swing Band as we celebrate Christmas with popular holiday tunes in a swingin' style as well as some traditional swing tunes you know and love! Tickets for a pre-concert reception with hors d'oeuvres and drinks may be purchased for this concert.

TO SIT AND DREAM: SONGS OF FAITH AND STRENGTH

Tar River Chorus

Saturday, March 4, 7:30 PM

First Baptist Church, Rocky Mount

This concert — squarely at the intersection of hymns, sacred music, and secular music — will inspire and comfort. With repertoire composed entirely by women, from Alice Parker and Natalie Sleeth to Dolly Parton and Cyndi Lauper, the Tar River Chorus will journey through a stunning program which offers everything from thought-provoking to "just plain fun!"

THE MUSIC OF QUEEN

Tar River Orchestra and Chorus

with Jeans 'n Classics

Friday, March 31, 7:30 PM

Dunn Center, Rocky Mount

SPECIAL EVENT

(not included in the season ticket)

CELEBRATE EARTH

Tar River Orchestra

Saturday, April 22, 2 PM & 3:15 PM

Imperial Centre, Rocky Mount

Join the Tar River Orchestra for our FREE annual family concert as we celebrate Earth Day with well-known classical and popular music that promises to entertain young and old alike. Selections include "Pastoral" from Beethoven's Symphony No. 6, Shenandoah, the theme from Jurassic Park, Old MacDonald, music from Happy Feet and MORE! Concertgoers may visit the Children's Museum for free before or after the concert. Contact the Imperial Centre after January 1 to reserve your concert tickets.

THE BIRTH OF COOL

Tar River Swing Band

Tuesday, May 16, 7:30 PM

Dunn Center, Rocky Mount

The Tar River Swing Band will entertain with classics from Ellington & Basie, along with tunes from Rocky Mount's own, Thelonius Monk, and selections from The Birth of Cool by Miles Davis. Join us for an evening of toe-tapping fun! Tickets for a pre-concert reception with hors d'oeuvres and drinks may be purchased for this concert.
